A Year in Pictures [SLIDESHOW]

7 Big Ideas in the Health Sciences for 2016

10 of the Year's Most Popular Science Stories

Most Quotable in 2015

UCSF In The News

Cancer Treatments May Need To Be Tailored To Each Tumor
NPR | Aul Butte, MD, PhD, the director for the Institute for Computational Health Sciences at UCSF, is quoted.

A Cure for AIDS: Scientists Say It's 'On the Horizon'
KQED | Paul Volberding, MD, UCSF oncologist and early HIV-treatment provider, is quoted.

Campus Announcements

Update on Career Tracks: UCSF is changing its job classification system in 2016. How will this affect you? Find out by watching a recent presentation. Learn more »

Costs of Care: A forum for all those contributing to the mission of improving healthcare value. Join Vineet Arora, MD, from the University of Chicago and others to share stories and build bridges. RSVP and/or Submit Abstract »

Upcoming Events

UCSF Staff Assembly with Chancellor Sam Hawgood
December 15, 2015

Holiday Tradition: Tamales!
December 15, 2015

Seasonal Songs by Opera Guild - Complimentary Cookies & Cider
December 18, 2015

Free Gym Pass
Get your 2016 off to a healthy start!
UCSF Fitness & Recreation is hosting an Open House from January 1 - 10 at Parnassus and Mission Bay locations.

More upcoming events...