Love it? Hate it? We need your help to make this newsletter better. Take this short survey.

$25M to Advance UCSF Psych, Neuroscience Research

Mission Hall and the Open Plan Workspace Quandary

Zika, Ebola and More: Designing One Test to Catch Them All

Addressing Female Faculty Salary Inequities at UCSF

USSF In The News

Major Study Finds Risks for Dementia Vary Between Ethnic Groups
SF Gate | Elizabeth Rose Mayeda, PhD, postdoctoral fellow and lead author of the study, found that risk of dementia is more pronounced in certain ethnic groups.

Tweaking Mother Nature, Biologists Aim For Better Cancer-Fighting Cells
SfAAT | Wendell Lim, PhD, a professor of cellular and molecular pharmacology at UCSF, discusses his team's work in engineering immune cells and other cells to fight disease.

Campus Announcements

Clinical Sciences Building Closed: One of the oldest buildings at Parnassus Heights will be undergoing extensive renovation through 2017. As of Monday, February 8, CSB officially closed. Learn more »

50% Off Fitness Center Enrollment: There's still time to catch up on your fitness goals and transform in 2016. Enjoy 50% off enrollment through February 29. UCSF staff rates start at $39/month. Learn more »

Upcoming Events

Black History Month Reception
February 18, 2016

Grand Opening: Walgreens at Mission Bay
February 23, 2016

"Injustice and Health" Teach-in with Seodad O’Brien (livestream)
February 24, 2016

More upcoming events...