

Pulse Today

Essential news for the UCSF community. For more, visit pulse.ucsf.edu »

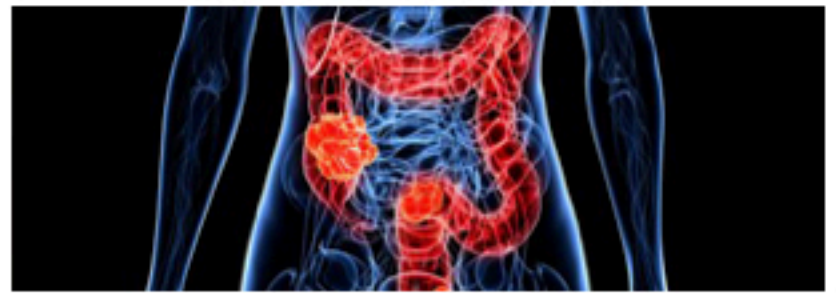

Andre Campbell Highlights Social Justice, Diversity in Last Lecture

Founders Day Awards Honor Public Service, Staff Contributions

New Family House Opens at Mission Bay

Better Survival for Colon Cancer Patients with Left-Sided Tumors

UCSF In The News

For Software Entrepreneur, $10 Million BRCA Gift Is Personal

SF Chronicle | BRCA Foundation donor motivated by family mutation that raises risk of breast cancer.

UCSF Study: Smokers Quit and Health Care Costs Drop - in Next Year

KQED | Declining smoking rates leads to big savings in health care costs, UCSF study finds.

Campus Announcements

AT&T Park Traffic Advisory: A private university is holding a 35,000-person commencement ceremony at AT&T Park on Friday, May 27. Avoid traffic by taking public transportation. Read service alerts »

Commuter Survey: Help Transportation Services make improvements by taking a short survey before June 19. You'll be eligible to win one of three $50 City CarShare certificates. Take the survey »

Online Forum for Parents: Family Services has launched a pilot forum for UCSF parents. Trial topic of conversation: camp resources. Join the forum »

Upcoming Events

Reframing the Dialogue: Race, Police Violence and Public Health

May 23, 2016 | Parnassus

The Triangulum: Tobacco, Marijuana, and E-Cigarettes

May 26, 2016 | Parnassus

Live Stream: Precision Public Health Summit

June 6 & 7, 2016 | All locations

More upcoming events...

