

Pulse Today

Essential news for the UCSF community. For more, visit pulse.ucsf.edu »

VIDEO: 3-D Technology is Making Colonoscopies Less Invasive

PHOTOS: Hundreds March in Pride Parade After Orlando Tragedy

The 'Slam Dunk' Choice for a Prestigious Mentoring Award

UCSF Benioff Children's Hospitals Excel in U.S. News Rankings

UCSF In The News

Hospitals Look To Technology To Communicate, Reduce Errors

San Francisco Chronicle | Michael Gropper, chair of Anesthesiology, is leading an effort to use an app to merge information from patients' medical records with data in the ICU to give an immediate snapshot of patients' conditions.

Food Banks Take On a Contributor to Diabetes: Themselves

New York Times | Hilary K. Seligman, associate professor of Medicine and of Epidemiology and Biostatistics, is doing a randomized trial at three food banks that aims to help patrons gain control of both their diets and type 2 diabetes.

Campus Announcements

New Discount Program: The UCSF Passport Discount Program provides discounts at over 12,000 restaurants, shops, airlines, sporting tickets and hotels. Sign up here »

Parnassus Construction Updates: Seismic renovation work is continuing around the Parnassus campus. Read the updated information about the work that is happening through September. Learn more »

Upcoming Events

Speaker Series on Computational Immunology

July 12, 2016 | Mission Hall

AIDS Walk San Francisco

July 17, 2016 | Golden Gate Park

More upcoming events...

