

Pulse Today

Essential news for the UCSF community. For more, visit pulse.ucsf.edu »

VIDEO: UCSF's Science-Based Program to Reduce Work Stress

Covert Inflammation May Trigger Many Forms of Cancer

PHOTOS: UCSF Shows Up Big at AIDS Walk SF's 30th Anniversary

VIDEO: Countdown to a Cure: The Effort to Finally Defeat AIDS

UCSF In The News

Cancer research could help the search towards an HIV cure

CNN | Steven Deeks, professor of medicine and co-chair of the 2016 International AIDS Conference, authors an editorial about the parallels between cancer and HIV research.

ER death rate in the U.S. has dropped by almost half

CBS News | Hemal Kanzaria, assistant professor of emergency medicine, discusses her study showing a 48 percent reduction in ER deaths between 1997 and 2011.

Campus Announcements

Be the First to Know! You can sign up to have daily or weekly UCSF News updates delivered to your inbox. Subscribe to UCSF News»

New CTSI Co-Director: Harold Collard, associate professor of clinical medicine, has been named co-lead of the Clinical and Translational Science Institute. He will take over for Deborah Grady, who is retiring. Learn more about CTSI's new co-director »

Whistleblower Hotline: All faculty, staff and students can anonymously report suspicious activity through an independently-operated whistleblower hotline. If you have something to report, the toll-free number is 1-800-403-4744. Find out more about UC's Whistleblower policy »

Upcoming Events

Stop Sexual Harassment in Science: Panel with Rep. Jackie Speier

July 19 | Mission Bay

Lessons in Community Health from Mali

July 22 | Mission Bay

Students, Postdocs: Identifying your Values & Motivators

July 25 | Mission Bay

More upcoming events...

Rent your own scooter at Parnassus or Mission Bay!