

Pulse Today

Essential news for the UCSF community. For more, visit pulse.ucsf.edu »

UCSF Tops Public Universities in Fundraising for 2015

Are We Ready for a Blood Test for Cancer?

Pelosi at UCSF: Covered California a Success

New Clinical Skills Space at Parnassus [360° PHOTO]

UCSF In The News

Irregular Heartbeats? Coffee May Not Be So Bad for You

The New York Times | Gregory Marcus, MD, associate professor and director of clinical research in the division of cardiology, is quoted.

Huge Studies Peer Inside Brain, Blood to Unlock Mysteries of Concussion

STAT | Geoffrey Manley, MD, PhD, professor in the department of neurological surgery, is quoted.

Campus Announcements

Future UC Retirement Plan: UC is developing new retirement benefits for future employees. Through February 15, current staff can give feedback on their recommendations. Learn more and submit a comment »

Chancellor Awards: In recognition of excellent work, UCSF employees can nominate colleagues for the Exceptional University Service or Exceptional University Management Awards by March 1. Learn more »

Upcoming Events

Panel Discussion: Undocumented, Underserved

February 1, 2016

Documentary Screening – The Raising of America: Early Childhood and the Future of Our Nation

February 3, 2016

Drugs from Bugs: The Medicine Factory In Your Gut

February 10, 2016

More upcoming events...

Feb. 5

Staff Resource Day

REGISTER NOW